

May 17: Triple Homicide

May 18: Mayor Fischer calls community meeting April 28: The National League of Cities Institut selected Louisville to receive Black Male Achievement assistance

March: Mayor Fischer convenes a diverse group of citizens to discuss community issues

December: OSHN is created to coordinate the efforts of the Violence Prevention Work Group

November 1-April 30:

Workgroups worked to develop and begin implementing goals and initiatives

January: Phase II Blueprint for Safe and Healthy Neighborhoods: One Love Louisville-Be the One to make a Difference was released

2013

2014

2015

2016

June 7: Mayor Fischer forms the Violence Prevention Workgroup with 37 citizens (Cochaired by Dr. B. Hudson & Dr. L. Nesbitt

> October 25: Violence Prevention Workgroup (VPWG) releases report with 42 recommendations

March 4: Mayor Fischer appoints 1st director for the OSHN; Louisville joins Cities United

> October 25: OSHN releases Phase I Blueprint for Safe and Healthy Neighborhoods: Moving Louisville to Action which developed governance structure and 11 individual workgroups

March 22: Youth incident downtown and on big four bridge

March 25: Mayor Fischer calls community meeting

March 27: Youth conversation to discuss solutions and needs following the incident

September 19-21: Weekend of Hope which launched the Zones of Hope Initiative in four neighborhoods: California, Newburg, Parkland and Russell (Shawnee added later)

September 25/26: Mayor Fischer accepts President's My Brother's Keeper Community Challenge

September 27: Louisville selected to join the National Forum on Youth by the U.S. Department of Justice

